

CECI's mission is to fight poverty and exclusion through sustainable development projects in Africa, Asia and the Americas, since 1958.

RULES OF GOOD CONDUCT – NETIQUETTE FOR CECI'S ONLINE PLATFORMS

CECI is pleased to welcome you to its online platforms, open to all. In order to maintain an open and respectful space for discussion and reflection on our various platforms, it is important to respect certain rules of good conduct concerning publications, copyright, and privacy.

Rules of Good Conduct

Please note that our administrators reserve the right to remove and/or report any post containing:

- ◆ Comments deemed abusive, defamatory or obscene;
- ◆ Discriminatory comments based on gender, sexual orientation, ethno-cultural background, religion, age or physical and mental health;
- ◆ Fraudulent, hateful, offensive comments or messages inciting violence;
- ◆ A violation of any intellectual property;
- ◆ A violation of any law or regulation in force in Quebec and Canada.

CECI also reserves the right to ban from its pages a person or an account that would publish such remarks.

Anonymous publications and the use of a pseudonym are not tolerated. The content of posted messages is the sole responsibility of those who publish them.

Moderation of comments

Our administrators reserve the right to delete, modify or abbreviate any comment that violates the rules of good conduct.

These rules may be modified at any time by CECI.
